

New Venture is a "Star Craft" class motor cruiser built in 1960 by W. Bates & Son at Chertsey, Surrey. The hull is a round bilge design constructed of double diagonal teak planking onto oak steam-bent frames. The superstructure is in African mahogany and she has a teak laid deck.

She is powered by twin Perkins diesel engines, each 145hp.

Year Built - 1960

Length - 40ft

Beam - 11ft 6in

Draft - 3ft 6in

Engines - Twin Perkins HT6.354 Diesel

Hull construction - Double diagonal teak

Deck construction - Teak